DR. CHAMPION'S VEGETABLE AGUE MEDICINE: A safe and certain cure for Chills and Fever in all its complicated forms; Also, an effectual rem-dy for Fevers of every description. This medicine has been used by the proprietor number of years, in extensive practice, during which time he has treated some thousands of cases of Fever, and from the success in this mode of practice, he is confident it must and will be the pre vailing practice in Fevers. Its never fails to cure the Chills and Fevers the first day.

Bilious, Typhus, Nervous, Conjective, and Winter Fevers, all yield to the use of this medicine, and are cured by this system of practice, in a shorter time, and with much more certainty than by any other system of practice that has ever been recom Certificate from Dr. Julius S. Taylor, a practising Physician.

CARROLLTON, Montgomery Co., Ohio. I do hereby certify that I am personally acquain-ted with Dr. Champion, and also acquainted with his system of practice in fevers, and I am of opin ion that his system of treating bilious and other fevers, surpasses any that has ever been recommen ded. I do earnestly recommend it to all persons laboring under fevers as a safe and effectual reme-[December 25, 1840.

This is to certify that I was afflicted with the chills and fevers six months, during which time tried many remedies, but never found any thing to effect a permanent cure until I tried Dr. Champion's Ague Pills. I procured a box and be imported took twelve Pills which cured me effectually. My purchasers; chills were stopped in November last and I have had none since. Nadison, la. March 2, 1841. WM. SIMPSON.

Dr. F. Champion-Dear Sir: I have been afflicted with the chills and fever about eight months, during my residence in Michigan. I became much swelled, a large Ague cake in my side, severe pain in my back and side. My appetite was gone, countenance sallow, and I was very much debilitated .-For the care I tried a number of remedies, all of which failed, and after I came to this place, I got a box of your Vegetable Ague Pills and took a part of them, according to direction, which cared me effectually. My brother was also taken with the chills and fever, and he took the balance of the box of Pills, which cured him immediately. JNO. SEARS.

Cincinnati, April 12, 1841. I do certify that I was afflicted a long time with the chills and fever and was speedily and permanently cured by the use of a few doses of Dr. Champion's Vegetable Ague Medicine. It has been more than one year since my chills were stopped, and I have not had the least appearance of a relapse. JUDITH SNOW. Belleville, St. Clair co. Ills., April 22, 1841.

Each box contains twenty-four pills, twelve of which are sufficient to cure any ordinary case of chills and fever. A pamphlet accompanying cach box, with full directions, and ample certificates, of the efficacy of this medicine.

Price, $1 25 per box.
